The Young Leaders China Fellowship Program is designed to develop global leadership skills through cross-cultural exposure to Chinese business, media, and cultural agencies, coupled with a follow-on project designed to increase awareness and knowledge of doing business in or with China in the participant’s companies where they lead.

The ideal candidate for the program will be a young, working professional who wants to better understand China to enhance their professional development. Participants must be under 40. One must become a Young Leaders member to be considered.

Friday, October 14 to Saturday, October 22 2016
